CONGRATULATIONS - ANOTHER GREAT OFFER !!

 Figures and percentages are based on the institution's reported cost of attendance and history of awarded funding.

The Student's Financial Need is determined by subtracting the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) from the Total Cost of Attendance (COA). Although this is the most common formula, be advised that some institutions will vary their formula slightly, which will alter the Student's Financial Need and ultimately the funding offered. This generally enables a school to offer students, they most want to attract, additional funding; while others may be offered less.

In the above evaluation, the Student's Financial Need is multiplied by the Percentage of Need Met and Gift Aid Offered to determine the Target Gift Aid. This is the amount of Gift Aid (money that does not have to be repaid) that the student may expect to receive directly from the institution. Please be advised that the amount and type of funding that the student receives is ultimately the decision of the institution's Financial Aid Officer (FAO).

Price of Attendance and Federal Direct PLUS loan Calculation

You can view the current Price of Attendance estimate for the upcoming academic year on our Web site at: [http://www.scu.edu/\[redacted\]](http://www.scu.edu/[redacted]). This includes an estimate for tuition, room/board, books, personal allowance, transportation allowance, and loan fees.

A parent of a dependent student may also be eligible to apply for a Federal Direct Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (Federal Direct PLUS). The maximum amount that your parent may request for a Federal Direct PLUS may be calculated at: [http://www.scu.edu/\[redacted\]](http://www.scu.edu/[redacted]) Calculator.cfm. Eligibility for the Federal Direct PLUS depends on a modest credit check that determines whether the parent borrower has an adverse credit history.

You can find more information regarding the Federal Direct PLUS on the SCU Financial Aid Web site at [http://www.scu.edu/\[redacted\]](http://www.scu.edu/[redacted])

This award is subject to the following conditions:

- This award offer letter is only valid if you have been officially admitted to Santa Clara University.
- It is your responsibility to immediately notify the Financial Aid Office of any changes in either your living or dependency or marital status that might affect your aid package.
- The University may adjust your financial aid package to reflect changes to your personal or financial circumstances or new resources that are available.
- Unless your award offer states otherwise, this offer is based on full-time enrollment. If your registration status changes at any time, it may affect your aid package.
